REVIEW.

The present year is the thirteenth in the career of the Collegiate Institute. In this time it has enrolled over FOURTEEN HUNDRED students, of whom about one third have been ladies. Of these, including the present class, about ONE HUNDRED have been regularly graduated and granted a diploma.

A considerable number of these have continued their studies in higher institutions and have already entered upon their work in the Ministry, in Law, or in Medicine. Grateful record is made of the fact that no death has occurred in these years, and that the remarkably exemplary conduct of the students has rendered severe discipline unnecessary.

Two noteworthy events have characterized the past year. The first is the death of the venerated and beloved Founder, full of years and full of honors. He has entered into the rest which remaineth for the people of God, and for which his pure and beneficent life was so good a preparation. He died July 14th aged nearly eighty-six.

The other momentous event in the year's history, is the total destruction by fire of the college building on the night of December 7th. The course of study was interrupted for only two days. Adequate temporary quarters were immediately secured and furnished, and the full work of the college was resumed.

Plans were at once formed for re-building on an enlarged scale and with numerous improvements. The work is already well under way, and the new building is promised for January 1st, '87. It will be heated by steam, and will contain every appliance which experience has shown to be useful. The library, apparatus and cabinet were saved and will be enlarged and improved. Notwithstanding these two sad events, the year has been a happy and prosperous one, full of earnest work and healthful progress.

THE COURSE OF STUDY.

The studies pursued at the Collegiate Institute are arranged in four parallel courses, viz: the CLASSICAL, SCIENTIFIC, COMMERCIAL and LADIES', which are displayed in detail on pages 13-16.

It will appear from an inspection of this schedule that the course of study has been expanded to cover five years instead of four. This has been rendered necessary by the increasing demands of the colleges, to meet which, additions have been made to our course from time to time until another year is fairly required to do it justice. In this first year have been included some of the studies formerly belonging to the "Preparatory" year. In fact the new "First" year is the old "Preparatory Year" expanded and advanced. This arrangement gives three years, instead of two, in which to prepare for the Freshman class in the colleges, and will relieve the necessity of crowding and cramming which has hitherto existed. No change is made in the ultimate extent of the course, in any of its departments. The new arrangement, of course, supersedes the former (so called) Preparatory year.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Students entering, are strongly advised to follow regularly one of the courses, since it is found that "Special Students" seldom prosper, particularly if allowed to choose for themselves what they shall study. Preference will be given to students who propose to enter upon the regular course.

STANDARD.

While the Collegiate Institute has never aimed to be a mere preparatory school for college, yet its Classical and Scientific courses lead up to the Junior class in our principal colleges, and our faithful students readily pass the examinations for this class.

ELECTIVES.

Attention is called to the "Electives" in the Ladies' course. From the three studies so designated in each year, two are required for graduation.

CO-EDUCATION.

It will appear from a comparison of the foregoing "Courses of Study" that the Collegiate Institute does not advocate or exhibit what is commonly known as the "Co education of the Sexes." Girls are educated as girls, and a distinct course of study is arranged for them, omitting the higher Classics and higher Mathematics; but those who desire may pursue these studies as specialties without extra expense.

It is gratifying, moreover, to state that in our experience of the past thirteen years, the association of both sexes in the same institution has been attended with the happiest results of reciprocal influence in the healthy development of character.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION.

For entrance examinations see page 12.

All candidates must present to the President satisfactory evidence of good moral character; and if any candidate has been a member of another Institution immediately preceding his application, he shall be expected to furnish a certificate of honorable dismissal.

As an act of Matriculation, after other specified conditions have been fulfilled, candidates must subscribe to the following

PLEDGE :

"I do hereby solemnly engage to comply with all the rules and regulations of the York Collegiate Institute, and to discharge faithfully all my known duties."

The name of the new student shall not be placed on the Roll until he shall have paid his Tuition Fee for the first term, and the same shall apply to all students at the beginning of each year.

EXPENSES.

The Collegiate Institute being generously endowed, the tuition is placed at the nominal sum of $10 per annum, payable in proportionate amounts at the beginning of each term, viz:

For the First term,	-	-	-	$16.
For the Second term,	-	-	-	14.
For the Third term,	-	-	-	10.
Total				$40.

EXTRAS.

Music, (Piano)	-	-	-	-	-	$40. per annum.
Drawing	{	to regular students,	-	-	-	$ 5. “ “
		to special students,	-	-	-	10. “ “
Oil Painting	{	to regular students,	-	-	-	$10. “ “
		to special students,	-	-	-	20. “ “
Chemistry (to cover cost of materials)	-					$3. “ “

A discount of 50 per cent is allowed to children of clergymen, and of 10 per cent. to families furnishing more than one student.

In case of protracted absence on account of sickness, or other just cause, students are charged one-half the regular amount for the time they are absent.

New students are charged from the date of their entrance.

Books are furnished at lowest wholesale rates.

—:†:—

SESSIONS, SERVICES, & C.

The Students, except the Senior Class, attend at the College five days in each week. from 9 to 12 A. M., and from 1½ to 4 P. M., and may be detained after school hours for delinquency in study or deportment.

The daily sessions of the Institute are opened with Singing, Reading the Scriptures and Prayer.

In addition to the above, the President conducts, once a week, a service for religious instruction and worship in accordance with the design of the Founders. In this service the students take part.

A branch of the Y. M. C. A. is maintained among the students with monthly meetings.

Written and Oral examinations are held at the end of each term, when a report of the attendance, scholarship and deportment is sent to the parents. An average of 75 per cent. is required for advancement to a higher class.

DISCIPLINE, &c.

The supervision of the students extends to their conduct not only during study and recitation hours, but while on the streets, and in public places; and includes visitation at the boarding houses, of such as are from abroad.

Keepers of boarding houses are expected to make report in regard to the habits and conduct of the students with them, as often and in such manner as desired by the President.

Any student whose connection with the Institute is decided by the Faculty to be undesirable, may be dismissed without any more specific charge.

DESIGN AND AIM.

It is designed that the Collegiate Institute shall be, in all its aims and methods, pervaded with a distinctive and earnest Christian spirit. More than two thirds of the students here enrolled are professors of religion and this qualification is required, by Charter, of every member of the Faculty. About ten per cent. are candidates for the Gospel Ministry.

In discipline constant appeal is made to the conscience of the student. He is taught to submit to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake. (1 Peter 2:13,) and to practice self-control as a preparation for life.

LIBRARY.

The Collegiate Institute Library contains about two thousand volumes of choice literature, and is receiving constant additions. It includes the latest treatises in the various departments of science, and many expensive works of reference. Among these latter may be mentioned the "American," "Brittanica" and "People's" Encyclopedias, and Littré's French Dictionary.

APPARATUS AND CABINET.

The Philosophical Hall is furnished with COMPLETE APPARATUS, providing for the latest researches in Science, and a large collection of minerals illustrates the study of Geology and Mineralogy. The new Chemical Laboratory will be detached from the main building and supplied with every appliance for practical work.

MUSIC.

In addition to private instruction upon the Piano and Organ, all the Scholars are daily practiced in singing, and the best voices are organized into a choir, affording opportunity for high musical culture.

PUBLIC EXERCISES.

The Students of the Senior Class deliver Orations and read Essays in March, preparatory to Commencement. These are interspersed with vocal and instrumental music and afford brilliant evening entertainments. Lectures are also given by distinguished speakers and writers, affording models for imitation. On "Founder's Day" (April 14th) a literary address is delivered by one of the Alumni.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

The PHI SIGMA SOCIETY, with weekly meetings, is maintained by the young men with the co-operation of the Faculty, in which the usual literary and parliamentary exercises are held, including a public competition in Oratory. It holds likewise semi-annual evening Receptions for invited guests. This Society is very effective in developing the manhood of the students and fitting them for real life. The prize men this year in oratory were Messrs. Denlinger and Niles.

SOCIETY OF ALUMNI.

The ALUMNI already exceed 100 in number and are organized into an Association with annual meetings. The President of this Society for the current year is Mr. Joseph R. Strawbridge of the Class of '80.

BOARDING.

Lady students are domiciled in the College Boarding House, in charge of a Matron and under direct Presidential supervision. The charges here are $180 AND $160 PER ANNUM, according as the room is occupied by one or by two students; fuel and light are included. Boarding moreover is provided for boys in private families under the supervision of the College, at prices varying from $3.25 to $5.00 per week.

APPLICATIONS.

New Students may apply for examination at the President's house Friday, June 18th, at 9 o'clock A. M., and on Saturday, September 4th and Monday, September 6th, at the present quarters of the college.

APPOINTMENTS.

The closing religious exercises of the College will be held on Sunday, June 13th, at 7½ P. M. in the Calvary Presbyterian Church. To these services the parents and friends of the students are invited.

The Commencement of the current year will be held Thursday Evening, June 17th, when the students of the Graduating Class will deliver their orations and essays and the Diplomas will be conferred.

On Tuesday evening, June 15th, the PHI SIGMA (Literary) SOCIETY will hold its annual closing exercises and Reception.

On Wednesday evening, June 16th, the SOCIETY OF THE ALUMNI will hold its annual meeting.

The 14th Year will open on Monday, September 6th.

MATERIAL FACILITIES.

The new building in all its features and appliances will greatly surpass the former. Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, Surveying Instruments, a Telescope, Microscope, Barometer, Tellurian, an ample Library, the best Musical Instruments, &c., are already provided, and everything is added from time to time which experience and the most intelligent judgment may suggest as desirable. We regret that it is too early to furnish an engraving of the new building.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Among the endowments, the College possesses a SCHOLARSHIP FUND, which affords $600 each to seven students during four years of the Classical course, payable at the end of each current quarter. These students must be recommended by the Presbytery of Westminster as candidates for the ministry, and approved by the Faculty and Trustees. There will be three vacancies in these Scholarships for the coming year.
